

ANGEL CAPITAL ASSOCIATION

ANGEL EDUCATION SERIES

The Angel Capital Association (ACA) introduces a series of educational workshop sessions designed for angel investors in the Northeast U.S. (New England & New York regions). The sessions are organized into two training tracks: Basic Series and Advanced Series.

The Basic Series track consists of introductory training sessions designed for individuals who are new (or relatively new) to angel investing and need a primer on the angel investment process – and the benefits of leveraging off other angels and angel groups.

The Advanced Series track consists of multiple modules that are designed to provide experienced angels with a deep focus on the skills that will provide more value to their role as an angel investor – and to the groups they belong to.

A complimentary evening networking reception (6:00-7:30 pm) follows the conclusion of each day of workshop sessions. The reception is complimentary for all members of ACA member angel groups and invited guests.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS – May Workshops

BASIC SERIES:

B-5: Serving on the Board and Advising. Start-ups need help pulling angels who want to help into roles that deliver value to the company. Helping a first-time CEO understand the difference between an occasional advisor, an advisory board member and a board of directors' member often falls to a trusted angel investor. Reviewing the responsibilities of these differing roles, from an angel perspective, is the goal of this session. (NOTE: this session is being held from 4:45pm to 5:45pm)

Faculty planned for this session:

- Michael Mark – Member, Walnut Venture Associates
- Norm Meisner – Member, Launchpad Venture Group and Beacon Angels

B-6: Exits. Many high growth companies get start getting traction and then look around for an exit strategy. This session looks at the trends for recent exits and the steps the board members and angels can take to set up relationships that will lead to interested potential acquirers. The session will also include what to look for when choosing an investment banker and determining the optimal time to sell the business. (NOTE: this session is being held from 3:30pm to 4:30pm)

Faculty planned for this session:

- Laura Kevghas – Partner, Mirus Capital Advisors

ADVANCED SERIES:

A-3: Tax Issues for Angel Investors. Angels need to understand the tax issues from their investing. This session covers tax treatments for various types of capital gains. The class includes what is required in documenting a write off. Other subjects covered will be how to handle options, interest payments on notes and LLC tax issues.

Faculty planned for this session includes:

- Larry Nannis, CPA – Serial entrepreneur Partner, Levine, Katz, Nannis & Solomon, P.C.

INSTRUCTORS – May Workshops

Education Series instructors are seasoned angel investors who have volunteered their time to give back to the angel investing community. In many cases, these investors were themselves founders of startup ventures and have experienced both sides of the capital divide – as entrepreneurs and angel investors – and provide invaluable insight into the angel investing process. All the instructors are established and well-regarded members of the angel investing community.

The following are scheduled to lead (or participate in) the March 29, 2010 workshop sessions:

Laura Kevghas ▪ Laura has over 20 years of experience in mergers and acquisitions, split nearly equally between investment banking and corporate development. Laura was a founding employee at Mirus and was directly involved in the successful sale of more than a dozen client companies in multiple industries. Laura rejoined Mirus Capital Advisors in 2006, after 10 years with Advanstar Communications, Inc., where she perfected her skills at buy side transactions. At Advanstar, Laura managed the company's acquisition and divestiture programs as Director of Corporate Development. Laura and her team completed more than 40 domestic and international acquisitions, with deal sizes in excess of $200 million, as well as numerous divestitures of non-core assets. Laura holds an MBA with high honors from Bentley's McCallum School of Business and a BS Magna Cum Laude in Finance and Economics from Bentley University, where she was a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, a business school honor society. Laura is also a member of The Commonwealth Institute and the Association for Corporate Growth . She holds her Series 7 and 63 FINRA certifications.
